Respirator Filter Use Log

One log per respirator. Fill in a row each time it is used.

Organisation (PCBU)	Site	Respirator make, model and ID
Assigned to	Date of last fit test	Manufacturer's filter change limit (hours or days)

Date used	Used by	Product or task	Filter type and class	Date filter fitted	Filter expiry	Hours this use	Total hours on filter	Filter replaced	Initials
								☐
								☐
								☐
								☐
								☐
								☐
								☐
								☐
								☐
								☐
								☐
								☐
								☐
								☐
								☐

Use the filter type the product's label or SDS specifies. Replace at the manufacturer's limit or expiry date, or sooner if you can smell or taste chemical, breathing gets harder, or the filter is damaged or wet.
When you fit a new filter, tick "Filter replaced" on the last row for the old one and restart total hours at the new filter. Store the respirator clean and sealed, away from chemicals.